12 distinctive at the time of all acts alleged herein. As a result of Microsoft's substantial
13 investment, the Microsoft Marks have developed extensive goodwill in the market.
14 Accordingly, the Microsoft Marks are extremely valuable to Microsoft.
15

16 IV. MICROSOFT'S INTERNET PRESENCE

17 52. Microsoft also maintains a substantial presence on the Internet. Via the 18 Internet, Microsoft advertises its products and services, transacts business with its customers,
19 offers its customers access to many of its services, and provides product support, among other
20 things.

21 53. In order to provide its customers with easy access to its online products and
22 services, Microsoft has registered a number of Internet domain names. Many of these domain
23 names correspond to Microsoft's trademarks and service marks. Examples of such domain
24 names are <microsoft.com>; <microsoftwindows.com>; <xbox.com>; <msn.com>.

25 54. Each of these domain names, as well as others registered to Microsoft, resolves
26 to a Microsoft-created website that provides Microsoft's customers with information related

1 to Microsoft's products and services. These websites generate business for Microsoft and
2 allow Microsoft to maintain relationships with its customers.

3 V. DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL ACTIONS

4 55. Defendants are the registrants and users of numerous Internet domain names
5 that contain or consist of Microsoft's marks and/or intentional misspellings of Microsoft's
6 marks. These domain names are hereinafter referred to as the "Infringing Domain Names."
7 A representative, though not necessarily exhaustive, list of 71 defendants' Infringing Domain
8 Names is attached hereto as Appendix A.

9
10 56. The Infringing Domain Names are identical or confusingly similar to 11 Microsoft's marks. The Infringing Domain Names do not resolve to websites owned or 12 endorsed by Microsoft.

13 57. Many of the Infringing Domain Names resolve to websites that are controlled
14 by Defendants (collectively referred to as "Defendants' Websites"). Many of these websites
15 display advertisements and/or hyperlinks featuring goods or services that are directly
16 competitive with Microsoft products and services.

17
18 58. When a person looking for a Microsoft website lands on one of Defendants'
19 websites, that person may click on one of the advertisements or hyperlinks on the site either
20 because the person finds it easier to click on the advertisement or hyperlink than to continue
21 searching for the Microsoft site, or because the person mistakenly believes Microsoft has 22 authorized or endorsed the advertisements or hyperlinks. In either case, the person has been 23 diverted from the Microsoft website he or she was seeking to visit, and Microsoft has lost the 24 opportunity to interact with that person.

25
26 59. Defendants use the Infringing Domain Names to profit from the Microsoft

1 Marks. Upon information and belief, Defendants receive a payment when Internet users click
2 on one or more links or advertisements on the websites of the Infringing Domain Names.
3 Defendant receives these payments from one or more advertisers, affiliate programs, or search
4 engines.

5
6 60. Defendants are not affiliated with, or sponsored by, Microsoft and have not
7 been authorized by Plaintiff to use the Microsoft Marks. Defendants have not now or ever
8 been authorized by Plaintiff to use or register any name or mark that includes the Microsoft
9 Marks.

10 61. Upon information and belief, Defendants' registration and use of the Infringing
11 Domain Names is to primarily capitalize on the goodwill associated with the Microsoft
12 Marks.
13

19 63. The Microsoft Marks were distinctive at the time Defendants registered the 21 64. The Infringing Domain Names were identical or confusingly similar to the 22 Microsoft Marks at the time Defendants registered the Infringing Domain Names, and remain

23 so today.

24 65. Defendants have registered and used the Infringing Domain Names with bad
25 faith intent to profit from the goodwill established by Microsoft in the Microsoft Marks.
26

66. Defendants' registration and use of the Infringing Domain Names has caused and will continue to cause damage to Microsoft, in an amount to be proved at trial, and is causing irreparable harm to Microsoft, for which there is no adequate remedy at law. Therefore, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief.
